Name of the entity	Aryaman Financial Services Limited

1. Background

- 1.1 Aryaman Financial Services Limited (“the Company” / “AFSL”) is a Company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013. In the normal course of business, AFSL enters into transactions with Related Parties across the globe to meet its business objectives. The Related Party may have potential or actual conflicts of interest. AFSL has always followed the highest standards of ethics, governance, and transparency to conduct its business activities, including Related Party Transactions, adhering to an appropriate governance framework. AFSL ensures that its Related Party Transactions are in the best interest of the Company and the relationship with Related Parties does not in any way influence the transactions.
- 1.2 The Companies Act 2013 (“the Act”) and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“SEBI LODR”) as amended from time to time prescribe a comprehensive regulatory framework governing the Related Party Transactions. The Act and the SEBI LODR also require the Companies to adopt a comprehensive policy on dealing with the Related Parties.
- 1.3 In the context of the above, in compliance with the provisions of the Act and SEBI LODR, on recommendations of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors of AFSL has adopted this Policy on Materiality and Dealing with Related Party Transactions (“the Policy”).
- 1.4 The Policy inter alia encompasses a process for identification of Related Parties, procedure for entering into Related Party Transactions, approval at various levels, disclosures and reporting obligations, criteria and procedure for approving Related Party Transactions, etc.

2. Important Definitions

2.1 “Related Party” means a person or an entity defined as related party under Section 2(76) of the Act, SEBI LODR or under the applicable accounting standards and include subsidiary, associate, joint ventures, key managerial personnel and their Relatives, directors and their Relatives, promoter and promoter group entities.

2.2 “Related Party Transaction” means a transaction involving a transfer of resources, services, or obligations between:

- (i) a listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on the one hand and a related party of the listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on the other hand; or
- (ii) a listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on one hand, and any other person or entity on the other hand, the purpose and effect of which is to benefit a related party of the listed entity or any of its subsidiaries, with effect from April 1, 2023; regardless of whether a price is charged and a “transaction” with a related party shall be construed to include a single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract:

Provided that the following shall not be a related party transaction:

- (a) The issue of specified securities on a preferential basis, subject to compliance with the requirements under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018;
- (b) The following corporate actions are uniformly applicable/offered to all shareholders in proportion to their shareholding:
 - i. Payment of dividend;
 - ii. subdivision or consolidation of securities;
 - iii. issuance of securities by way of a rights issue or a bonus issue; and

iv. Buy-back of securities.

- (c) Acceptance of fixed deposits by banks/Non-Banking Finance Companies at the terms uniformly applicable/offered to all shareholders/public, subject to disclosure of the same along with the disclosure of related party transactions every six months to the stock exchange(s), in the format as specified by the Board;
- (d) acceptance of current account deposits and savings account deposits by banks in compliance with the directions issued by the Reserve Bank of India or any other central bank in the relevant jurisdiction from time to time;

Explanation: For the purpose of clauses (c) and (d) above, acceptance of deposits includes payment of interest thereon.

- (e) retail purchases from any listed entity or its subsidiary by its directors or its employees, without establishing a business relationship and at the terms which are uniformly applicable/offered to all employees and directors;

Provided further that this definition shall not be applicable for the units issued by mutual funds which are listed on a recognized stock exchange(s);

2.3 “Arm’s length transaction” means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they are unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

2.4 “Material Related Party Transaction” means a transaction with a Related Party, where the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions with a Related Party during a financial year, exceeds rupees one thousand crore or ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company, whichever is lower.

Notwithstanding the above, a transaction involving payments made to a Related Party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five percent of the Annual Consolidated Turnover of the Company as per the last consolidated audited financial statements of the Company.

2.5 “Annual Consolidated Turnover” is the gross amount of revenue recognized in the statement of profit and loss from the sale, supply, or distribution of goods or on account of services rendered or both, during a financial year as per the last consolidated audited financial statements of the Company.

2.6 “Management” means and includes either of Managing Director or Whole time Director, or the CFO.

2.7 “Relative” is any person who is related to another, if —

- i. They are members of a Hindu Undivided Family;
- ii. they are husband and wife; or
- iii. one person is related to the other in the following manner, namely:
 - a. Father (the term “Father” includes step-father)
 - b. Mother (the term “Mother” includes the step-mother)
 - c. Son (the term “Son” includes the step-son)
 - d. Son’s wife
 - e. Daughter

- f. Daughter's husband
- g. Brother (the term "Brother" includes the step-brother)
- h. Sister (the term "Sister" includes the step-sister.)

2.8 "Ordinary Course of Business" if transactions satisfy any of the following criteria, such transactions will be generally in the Ordinary Course of Business:

- a. The Memorandum of Association of the Company should cover such a transaction;
- b. There are previous instances of the Company having carried out such a transaction;
- c. These transactions are frequent over some time;
- d. The transaction should be in furtherance of the business objectives of the Company;
- e. The transactions, if not frequent, are important to the business objectives of AFSL.
- f. The transactions are incidental to the business of the company/ part of standard industry practice, or but for which the business would be adversely affected;

This is not exhaustive criteria and the Company should assess each transaction considering its specific type, nature, value, and circumstances.

Explanation: Any words used in the Policy but not defined herein shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Act or Rules made thereunder, SEBI LODR, Indian Accounting Standards, or any other relevant legislation/law applicable to the Company.

3. Interpretation

- 3.1 In any circumstances, where the terms of the Policy differ from any existing or enacted Law(s), Rule(s), Regulation(s) governing the Company, then such Law(s), Rule(s) or Regulation(s) shall prevail over this Policy.
- 3.2 In case of any dispute or difference upon the meaning/interpretation of any provision in the Policy, the same shall be referred to the Audit Committee, and the decision of the Audit Committee in such a case shall be final. In interpreting such term/provision, the Audit Committee may seek the help of any of the officers of the Company or an outside expert as it deems fit.

4. Identification of Related Parties and the Related Party Transactions

- 4.1 Every Director and Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) shall, at the time of appointment, annually and whenever there is any change in the information already submitted, provide requisite information about all persons, firms, entities in which he is interested, whether directly or indirectly, to the Company Secretary.
- 4.2 Based on the above-referred information received and basis of the Act and SEBI LODR, a consolidated list of Related Parties shall be prepared.
- 4.3 The potential transactions with the Related Parties, as per the above-mentioned list, shall be identified, and a comprehensive proposal shall be submitted with details as per clause 6.2 of this Policy for requisite prior approval.

5. Approval of the Related Party Transactions

- 5.3.2 Approval of Shareholders of the Company shall not be required for transactions entered into with wholly owned subsidiaries whose accounts are consolidated with the Company.
- 5.3.3 No Related Party shall vote to approve such resolution, whether the entity is a Related Party to the particular transaction or not.

6. Procedure and Criteria for Approving Related Party Transactions

6.1 The Audit Committee shall specify the following criteria for granting omnibus approval:

- 6.1.1 The audit committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the policy on related party transactions, and such approval shall be applicable in respect of repetitive transactions.
- 6.1.2 The audit committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the listed entity;
- 6.1.3 Any transaction with Director, Key Managerial Personnel, Promoter, Promoter group under omnibus route shall additionally require Board approval;
- 6.1.4 While assessing any proposal, the Audit Committee may review the documents / seek information from Management, or get clarification or opinion as per clause 6.2 of this policy;
- 6.1.5 The transactions undertaken under omnibus approval shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee every quarter.
- 6.1.6 Transactions of the following nature will not be subject to omnibus approval of the Audit Committee:
 - i. Transactions which are not repetitive;
 - ii. Transactions involving the sale or disposal of an undertaking of the Company;
 - iii. Transactions involving the sale or disposal, or assignment of any significant or critical asset of the Company.

6.2 To obtain the approval of the Audit Committee and/or the Board, the Management shall submit a detailed proposal seeking approval for the Related Party Transaction. The proposal shall include the following information:

- 6.2.1 Name of the Related Party and nature of relationship;
- 6.2.2 Nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- 6.2.3 Material terms of the contract or arrangement, including the value, if any;
- 6.2.4 For transactions requiring omnibus approval:
 - a. Maximum number of transactions that can be entered into during the financial year.
 - b. Indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any.
- 6.2.5 Any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any.

- 6.2.6 In case of transactions not requiring Omnibus Approval, the manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of the contract and not considered as part of the contract;

- 6.2.8 Confirmation as per clause 6.4 of this policy.
- 6.2.9 Any other information relevant or important for the Board/Audit Committee to decide on the proposed transaction

6.3 While considering the approval of a Related Party Transaction, the Committee shall, among other factors, take into account the following considerations, as may be relevant to the specific transaction:

- 6.3.1 Whether the proposed transactions are in the best interest of the Company.
- 6.3.2 Whether the terms of the proposed Related Party Transactions are fair and on an arm's length basis
- 6.3.3 Whether the proposed Related Party Transactions are permissible under the provisions of the applicable laws.
- 6.3.4 Whether such contract or arrangement is entered into on terms no less favorable to the Company than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances;
- 6.3.5 Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- 6.3.6 Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;
- 6.3.7 Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company/extent of the Director's or KMP's interest in such contract or arrangement.

6.4 Audit Committee / the Board can rely on the following:

- 6.4.1 For approval or ratification or any material revision in the approved terms of the Related Party Transactions, the following opinions from the CFO, external consultant, or such other officer as may be approved by the Audit Committee shall be submitted to the Audit Committee along with the proposal.
 - a) That transactions are in the Ordinary Course of Business;
 - b) The transactions are at an Arm's Length Basis,

Provided that the person submitting the above-referred opinion or certificate should not be interested in the proposed transaction either directly or indirectly.
- 6.4.2 In case there is any change in the approved limits/terms of any transactions, the proposal for ratification of the transaction shall be submitted as per clause 6.4.1. The Audit Committee / Board also has the authority to modify previously approved Related Party Transactions.

6.4.3 The Management shall submit a certificate/opinion procured from a chartered accountant or other consultant for transfer pricing or related tax law compliances, confirming that all the transactions with related parties are at arm's length to the Audit Committee.

7. Related Party Transactions not previously approved

7.1 In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction that has not been approved under this Policy, the transaction shall be placed as promptly as practicable before the Committee or Board or the Shareholders ('Approving Authority' for this Clause) as may be required in accordance with this Policy, for review and ratification.

7.2 The Approving Authority shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances respecting such transaction and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including but not limited to ratification, revision in the terms, or termination of such transaction. The decision of the Approving Authority shall be binding under such circumstances.

7.3 Audit committee may examine internal controls and the reasons for failure in reporting/ prior approval of such Related Party Transaction and suggest directives to strengthen the internal controls/collaboration. In connection with any review/ratification of any particular Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee has the authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

8. Deemed Approval

8.1 The transactions or arrangements that are specifically dealt with under the separate provisions of the Law and executed under separate approvals/procedures from the relevant competent authority or committee shall be deemed to be approved under this Policy. Such transactions are enumerated below:
